

CILT Expectations: What you give is what you'll get!

Your enthusiasm and spirit will directly or indirectly affect all that you do. You are preparing to touch the lives and establish habits and attitudes of every child and staff member you meet while at Day Camp. The responsibility is enormous.

During the summer you will give of yourself and work very hard. You will also have FUN!! The enthusiasm and spirit of Finley Day Camp have long been established traditions and they will be an inspiration to you to do your best. We have inherited these traditions and are simply passing them on to other Finley Day Camp generations. We are in this together, good and bad, to help one another grow. Let's do the best job we can and support each other.

Below are some of your expectations as YMCA CILTs.
